

Be The Media

Call in to radioActive sanDiego at 619-269-4693 from the street with your live updates!
Post your story, photos and videos to <http://sandiego.indymedia.org> Just click Publish!

Basic Legal Info

Safety - When dealing with the police, keep your hands in view and don't make sudden movements. Avoid passing behind them. Nervous cops are dangerous cops. Also, never touch the police or their equipment (vehicles, flashlights, animals, etc.) — you can get beat up and charged with assault.

Talking to Cops – COPS LIE. COPS ARE ENCOURAGED TO LIE. COPS LIE THEY LIE THEY LIE. Whenever the cops ask you anything besides your name and address, it's legally safest to say these Magic Words: "I am going to remain silent. I want to see a lawyer." This invokes the rights which protect you from interrogation. When you say this, the cops are legally required to stop asking you questions. They probably won't stop, so just repeat the Magic Words until they catch on. What you say can be used against you. It's better not to wait for the cops to read you your rights – you know what your rights are, so you can invoke them by saying the Magic Words, "I am going to remain silent. I want to see a lawyer." Cops and other government agents are legally allowed to lie when they're investigating, and they are trained to be manipulative. Insist upon speaking with friends and lawyers before you answer any questions or sign anything.

Searches - Don't consent to a search! If the police try to search you house, car, backpack, pockets, etc. say the Magic Words II: "I do not consent to this search."

If you or someone you know is arrested, call J20SD Jail support@XXX-XXX-XXXX

<http://anarchistresistance.org> // <http://nlq.org> // <http://reclaimthestreets.net>
<http://sandiego.indymedia.org> // <http://radioActiveradio.org>

Be The Media

Call in to radioActive sanDiego at 619-269-4693 from the street with your live updates!
Post your story, photos and videos to <http://sandiego.indymedia.org> Just click Publish!

Basic Legal Info

Safety - When dealing with the police, keep your hands in view and don't make sudden movements. Avoid passing behind them. Nervous cops are dangerous cops. Also, never touch the police or their equipment (vehicles, flashlights, animals, etc.) — you can get beat up and charged with assault.

Talking to Cops – COPS LIE. COPS ARE ENCOURAGED TO LIE. COPS LIE THEY LIE THEY LIE. Whenever the cops ask you anything besides your name and address, it's legally safest to say these Magic Words: "I am going to remain silent. I want to see a lawyer." This invokes the rights which protect you from interrogation. When you say this, the cops are legally required to stop asking you questions. They probably won't stop, so just repeat the Magic Words until they catch on. What you say can be used against you. It's better not to wait for the cops to read you your rights – you know what your rights are, so you can invoke them by saying the Magic Words, "I am going to remain silent. I want to see a lawyer." Cops and other government agents are legally allowed to lie when they're investigating, and they are trained to be manipulative. Insist upon speaking with friends and lawyers before you answer any questions or sign anything.

Searches - Don't consent to a search! If the police try to search you house, car, backpack, pockets, etc. say the Magic Words II: "I do not consent to this search."

If you or someone you know is arrested, call J20SD Jail support@XXX-XXX-XXXX

<http://anarchistresistance.org> // <http://nlq.org> // <http://reclaimthestreets.net>
<http://sandiego.indymedia.org> // <http://radioActiveradio.org>

Reclaim The Streets

Why? Because the streets are ours! Because direct action does bring satisfaction -- it gives us a taste of working together, making decisions ourselves! Because Car culture sucks. Your whole enculturation experience is geared around keeping you out of the street. The idea is to keep everyone indoors. Life used to be lived in the streets, not just in cars, living rooms, and cubicles. Because stepping off the sidewalks brings us together, and allows us to challenge the dehumanization of our lives and the sterile world that accompanies it. A street party is a liberated zone, where we can practice life as we'd like it to be - full of color, community, pleasure and mutual aid. Because ecstatic dance is good for you. Because the Church and the State have tried to suppress our dancing (and our bodies, our sexuality, our freedom...) for hundreds of years and we're still resisting and reclaiming what was lost. So, when you come to challenge the powers that be, inevitably you find yourself on the curb, wondering "should I play it safe and stay on the sidewalks, or should I go into the street?" And it is the ones who are taking the most risks that will ultimately effect the change in society. We are reclaiming the streets in the celebratory tradition of Dia De Los Muertos and Irish Wakes to remember, honor and celebrate the lives of those who have died in immoral, unjust wars, and as a result of murderous immigration and trade policies.

Reclaim The Streets

Why? Because the streets are ours! Because direct action does bring satisfaction -- it gives us a taste of working together, making decisions ourselves! Because Car culture sucks. Your whole enculturation experience is geared around keeping you out of the street. The idea is to keep everyone indoors. Life used to be lived in the streets, not just in cars, living rooms, and cubicles. Because stepping off the sidewalks brings us together, and allows us to challenge the dehumanization of our lives and the sterile world that accompanies it. A street party is a liberated zone, where we can practice life as we'd like it to be - full of color, community, pleasure and mutual aid. Because ecstatic dance is good for you. Because the Church and the State have tried to suppress our dancing (and our bodies, our sexuality, our freedom...) for hundreds of years and we're still resisting and reclaiming what was lost. So, when you come to challenge the powers that be, inevitably you find yourself on the curb, wondering "should I play it safe and stay on the sidewalks, or should I go into the street?" And it is the ones who are taking the most risks that will ultimately effect the change in society. We are reclaiming the streets in the celebratory tradition of Dia De Los Muertos and Irish Wakes to remember, honor and celebrate the lives of those who have died in immoral, unjust wars, and as a result of murderous immigration and trade policies.